

18th Annual march of dimes[®] Mud Volleyball Challenge Saturday, August 21st, 2010

FACT SHEET

What: The March of Dimes Mud Volleyball Tournament is a day full of mudslinging fun. The majority of participating teams are corporate teams, with 6-10 players, who wallow all day in 2-3 feet of mud. The March of Dimes Mud Volleyball Challenge is the largest on the East Coast. In 2009 the tournament raised over $172,000 with over 1,700 participants with one goal: to raise money to save babies.

Who: People from all over Central Florida, gather to play volleyball and get dirty for an extraordinary cause: to save babies with the March of Dimes!
You don't need to be an expert volleyball player to participate in Mud Volleyball. Most of our participants are average volleyball players who just don't mind getting a little dirty to support a good cause!

When: Saturday, August 21st, 2010 Registration begins at 8:00 AM

Where: Lee Vista Center, near Orlando International Airport

Why: The Mud Volleyball Challenge raises money to support the March of Dimes fight to save babies. At the March of Dimes, the nation's third largest volunteer health organization, our mission is to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects, infant mortality, and premature birth. We accomplish our mission through programs of research, community service, education and advocacy.

How: Team registration is $450.00 (after August 1st is $500.00). Collect pledges and donations from co-workers, friends, family and neighbors to make a place for your team in "Club Mud" the ultimate party experience. Teams must raise a minimum of $1500.00 to experience all of the perks that come along with having "Club Mud" status! "Club Mud" incentives include free drinks, food, event t-shirts, freebies, shade, exclusive private restrooms, Mud Servants, and much more!!

REMEMBER: Your registration Fee DOES NOT count towards Club Mud!
Only funds raised in your envelope count towards Club Mud.

The 2010 Top Individual Fundraiser will receive a great prize package that will leave you hogging wild!!

The 2010 Top Fundraising Team will be featured in our Mud Volleyball 2011 brochure!

For more event information please check out our event website: www.mudvb.com For more information about the March of Dimes, please visit www.marchofdimes.com